Re: United States v. Wilkin De Los Santos, 19 Cr. 391 (AT)

Dear Judge Torres:

The Government writes to respectfully requests an extension of time until April 1, 2022 to file an opposition to the defendant's motion to suppress filed on March 8, 2022. On January 7, 2022, the Court set a revised motions in limine schedule with motions in limine due March 7, 2022, oppositions due March 14, 2022, and replies due March 21, 2022. On March 7, 2022, the defendant filed its motion to suppress, which was styled as "Reply Memorandum In Support of Motion to Preclude Introduction of Evidence From Mr. De Los Santos' Oregon Arrest." As such, the Government believed that the reply memorandum was a reply to the Government's opposition (filed on December 23, 2021) to the defendant's motion in limine and not seeking any new relief. Upon review of the reply memorandum today, the Government learned that the defendant seeks to suppress statements and evidence obtained from the defendant's Oregon arrest. Therefore, the Government requests a week from today to file an opposition to the motion. Defense counsel consents to the request.

GRANTED. The opposition shall be due April 1, 2022.

SO ORDERED.
